

BIGA ON THE BANKS

Press Reviews

San Antonio Magazine, October-November 2006 issue

food&spirits

Best Place to Take Your Wife/Husband

There are a few things that will bring San Antonians down to the River Walk and Bruce Auden Chef of Biga on the Banks knows just how to draw in the locals. The restaurant offers an eclectic mix of fine food in a loft space dining area. All of the appetizers are delicious, but the chicken-fried oysters really stand out. Carnivores like the "Big A" bone-on-beef tenderloin main course, and from the dessert menu the sticky toffee pudding and the Brulé x 3 (Dreamsicle, pecan and chocolate) are crowd pleasers. For an-over-the-top experience, sit outside on the patio overlooking the river. Biga on the Banks, 203 South St. Mary's, 225-0722.